

...Coaching, Mentoring, CEO Skills, Leadership, Team-building...

It is not always training that is needed. Sometimes it is experience, expertise, know-how and analysis.

Accent International, through its consultancy arm, Accentuate, has worked all over the world advising global corporates, governments, ministries, educational institutions, individual CEOs, Presidents, Senior Executives and HR Directors.

Areas covered include:

- International Working
- Implementing an International Culture
- Corporate Communications
- International Team-building
- International Leadership
- Skills for CEOs
- Coaching
- Mentoring
- Giving Presentations
- Negotiating
- Chairing

COMPANY TRAINING SOLUTIONS

Corporate Training in 2020

Accent International is well-known around the world for specialist English language courses for Executives and Professionals at its exclusive UK Training Centre, Bicton College. Accredited by the British Council, members of English UK, Business English UK and IALC—we have been awarded the title of “UK Centre of Excellence”

What is perhaps less well-known is the wide range of corporate training programmes, including specialist English but offering much more, which we carry out for our blue-chip corporate clients with great success.

From corporate training programmes in-company, through online training packages, to communication and intercultural training, language and soft skills training, through to consultancy, course design, coaching and mentoring for senior executives, Accent International is probably the leading organisation in its field.

- In-company programmes
- Online Training
- Soft Skills
- International Working
- Intercultural Skills
- Corporate Groups
- Incentive packages
- Coaching
- Mentoring
- Business Skills
- Executive English Plus
- English for Managers plus Family

.....you don't have to travel, we come to you.....

Accent International likes to work closely with its corporate clients.

This begins with listening.

Some clients like to send managers to our UK centre but some don't...or can't. It is sometimes difficult to find time or a budget for a course in the UK. This is why we have listened to what our clients say and have developed training for delivery at their training centre or head office.

These can include:

Specialist English for Business Skills

...Socializing, Meetings, Telephoning, Negotiating, Presentations, Networking

Specialist English for Business Areas

...Finance, HR, Production, Sales, Marketing, Technical, Operations, Logistics, IT...

Specialist English for Professional Sectors

..Oil and Gas, Pharmaceuticals, Engineering, Banking, Law, Medicine, Automotive..

English and Soft Skills

..Client Relations, Customer Service, Complaints, Persuading, Teamwork....

Don't move! We've got you covered!

It's easy! We come to you. We can organise everything ourselves or work closely with your training department. Instead of having 10 managers travelling to the UK, you have 1 trainer travelling to them.

Reducing cost. Reducing time away from work. Reducing stress.

Costs are from £3,750 per trainer per week (plus travel and accommodation).

..... wherever you want it, whenever you want it

Sometimes, it is difficult to get away to the UK and it is also difficult to find time for a one-week, or even one-day, seminar in-company. This is why we have listened again and have developed Accent Virtual.

Accent Virtual gives you access to Specialist English trainers, wherever you are, whenever you want them and for only 1 hour at a time.

Using your own laptop or tablet, you can have specific training, customised to your needs, at your desk, at home or in a hotel room anywhere in the world as you travel on a business trip.

With packages starting from only £230 and with versions for individuals or corporate programmes, Accent Virtual is the totally flexible training option.
